EVENING WORLD IN JUNCTION STAYS HAND OF THE GAS TRUST

BOARDS REPORT IN FAVOR OF TWO NEW SUBWAYS

Commissioners Appointed by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court Favor Third and Lexington Avenue Routes.

The commissioners appointed to investigate and report upon two more subway railway routes to-day handed up their report to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, approving the proposed Third avenue and Lexington avenue route which have been urged by The Evening World.

Both of those routes have subway connections in the Bronx, those of the Lexington avenue route being quite extensive.

The commissioners on the Lexington avenue route were Abraham Harshfield, Alexander Brough and Lucien L. Bonheur. They reported that the line, in their judgment, should be constructed and operated, but they also incorporated the suggestion that connection with the existing subway system should be out of the plans. This connection, as proposed, would be under Forty-second street.

The commissioners favor its elimination so as to give to an independent company just as good an opportunity

AMERICAN LEAGUE GROUND.

May 25.—The Detroit Tigers, who were so generous with his slabs on balls that he was also taken out. Eubank, who took his place, was also hit hard. The Highlanders made 15 hits all told. Billy Hogg twirled for the Highlanders and did it well.

First Inning.

Schaefer smashed out a long fly to deep center which was caught by Cobb. Cobb also lifted a skyscraper, and Williams was under the ball when it came down. Chase made a clever stop of Crawford's hard hit grounder, and, tossing the ball to Hogg, who covered the bag, just nipped fleetfooted Sam. NO RUNS.

Keeler patted the ball along the first base line for a bag, but his attempt to steal second was disastrous for he was easily nailed on Crawford's throw to Schaefer. Elberfeld then swatted the ball to the fence in deep right center for three bases, and crossed the plate a minute later on Chase's liner over third base for two bags. Laporte was hit on the hand and stroled to first. A double steal was then tried, Chase being caught at third, while Laporte got to second. Williams hit a boundary for a second. O'Leary, who lost no time in throwing Jimmy out at first. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

Lindsay drove out a high fly and Moriarty smothered the ball. Moriarty also walked with a skyscraper, but this time Conroy got the put out.

ST. LOUIS BASEBALL PARK, May 25.—A heavy morning rain left the St. Louis grounds in bad shape, but the Giants donned their uniforms and went out anyway. It was their first visit here since they won the world's championship, and the few rooters who arrived early gave them an ovation befitting their baseball supremacy.

The weather is intensely hot, and the players sweated in the heavy clothing they brought from Chicago. It told somewhat in the action of both teams on the field, but it is pie for Mathewson, the big fellow grows better with the weather. It is likely, however, he will not pitch here, the burden of the work falling on Ames, McNulty, White and Taylor.

Both Ames and Taylor warmed up this afternoon, but McGraw selected Taylor as the Giant watchman for now on.

Chicago has Boston to work on now, and the least slip out here is liable to again put the Cubs in the lead. "Never quit" is the Giant watchman from now on.

First Inning.

Brennan rolled to McGrady and was out on a pop. McGrady's grand stop and toss on Brennan's punt. Brennan fouled to Grady. NO RUNS.

Bennett batted, but Brennan and McGrady easily. Shannon let a third strike slide by. Smoot singled through Dahlen. Beckley lined to left field for a base. Arndt promanaded, filling the bases. Gilbert fumbled Himes's hit. Smoot scoring. McGrady singled to right. Beckley scoring, but Arndt was touched out at plate. TWO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Arndt slipped up on Mertes tap and he reached first in safety. Dahlen tapped to McGrady, forcing Mertes. Dahlen walked but McGrady rolled to Bennett, expiring at first, the runners moving up. Strang fanned. NO RUNS.

Grady rolled to Dahlen and was out at first. Brenon out, Dahlen to Brown. Bennett tripped to right. Shannon sent a long fly to Mertes. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Taylor shot a hot one through Drubel and beat it to first with ease. Brennan followed with an infield single, sending Taylor to second. Brown lifted a high fly to Shannon. Brennan's sharp crack to McGrady forced Brennan at second. Mertes followed with a high fly to left, scoring Taylor, but Taylor was thrown out at third. ONE RUN.

Smoot was a victim of strikes, and Beckley died on an easy roller to Gilbert. Arndt walked, but was forced at second on Himes's grounder to Dahlen. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Dahlen whacked a stiff one to Arndt, but died en route to first. Devin fouled out to Shannon. Hoggman fouled out to Arndt. NO RUNS.

Taylor gathered in McGrady's easy bounder and Brady took the count on.

BLEW SAFE THROUGH WORLD.

SUFFOLK, Va., May 25.—In attempting to blow the safe of Whitfield & Bro. early today burglars used an overcharge. The safe was blown through the walls and fifteen feet beyond the building. The house caught fire and with two others was destroyed, building a loss of $1,000. The burglars escaped.

BLANDY WINS PARKWAY STAKE FROM OXFORD

Rams Horn Was the Hot Tip and Bookmakers Retrieved.

TWO BUNGLING STARTS.

Racegoers Disgusted When Horses Leave the Post One, Two, Three.

BY T. O. PIPER.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, May 25.—The Parkway Handicap witnessed a downfall for the first choices, Rams Horn being the favorite and backed by the Westerners to win a fortune. Cedarstrome was played down from 20 to 1 to 12 to 1, the others being heavily backed. It was a brisk betting race, but paraded out good for the bookies, the race showing a change in the tide of losses for them for the week.

The race was won by Blandy in commanding style. Rams Horn couldn't run a yard for some reason. At the start Merry Lark was awarded and stumbled, putting him out of the running. The gray Oxford showed lightning speed and, hitting the stretch second to Blandy, left the others decisively behind. Behind came Proper and Cedarstrome, hustling it out for third money. Proper got it by the narrowness of a nose.

"If this thing continues much longer," said a prominent bookmaker today, "there won't be any bookmaking done on present lines. I never saw anything like it. We have lost $30,000 in three days. Our neighbor lost $12,000 alone yesterday, and I know of at least twenty other books which have lost from $1,000 to $5,000 in the last three days. Well, that's the way with racing. But I never saw such a losing condition with the books in my career of twenty-five years in racing."

The day's turmoil here began with a five-furlong dash for two-year-olds, for an equine medley was entered. The day and track were perfect for racing, and the running of the Parkway Handicap was early forecasted to be a most interesting event. It served to re-introduce the crack Westerner, Rams Horn, Proper, Blandy, Merry Lark, Oxford and Cedarstrome, on which latter an all-prevailing tip circulated. The card throughout was excellent.

First Start Was Bad.

Starter Cassidy's essay in the first was not edifying. The ponies got off almost in one-two-three order, being strung out a sixteenth of a mile in the first quarter. None of the rear single-fliers had a chance after that, and Mirza, which won, had to be a good skate to win. Garters, off swinging in the lead, tired after making all the running and did not respond to a vigorous hand ride. Mirza, coming along strong under the lash, came to the post by half a length. Alto Parola, ridden by Radtke, came third.

Radtke's Skill Wins.

Under the skilled hands of the clever Radtke, Yorkshire Lad stayed just long enough in the second, for a mile and a quarter, to win by a head from Red Friar. Radtke was content to let Red Friar, Echo and Red Friar go out and make the running until a mile and an eighth had been traversed. Then Radtke made his first decisive move, pulling the lead back to his horse. He rode with heels and hands, his efforts sending the Lad alongside and ahead of the pacemaker, Red Friar. The race was then won for the Lad, Red Friar being unable to improve. Brags, running a good race throughout, got third.

Run Up to Name.

Starter Cassidy's work was again bungling in the third. The start was miserable. Consistent entries, the crack Westerner, Merry Lark, Belle Storme secured second with Flip Flap and Diamond Flush, fighting it out for third. The Flip Flap got it, and went right on, being worked out for her next race, which will show a improvement over to-day's essay.

McCarren Colt Wins.

Senator Pat McCarren and his friends on the lawn, paddock and clubhouse hit the bookies to the tune of $10,000 when "Long Pat's" colt, Master Lester, romped off with the fifth race. Backed from 2 to 1, Master Lester went to the post a 6 to 5 favorite, and landed the money easily. Frank Lord, from "Big Tom's" stable, also backed with a bushel of greenbacks, got second place. Regardless of political affiliation and an acute friendship between the two owners, each played and tipped his horse. Solly M. gambled into third money, the others having no chance in this again poor start.

Balerio Wasn't Game.

ly got out of the maiden class in the sixth, winning in a drive by half a length. Ben Ban came in the rush, with Marysolite and got second money from Balerio, the favorite, which led all the way, tiring at the last few critical leaps, when a little extra gameness on his part would have seen him the graduate. Perry McAdow, who served
